Profile

Determined and hard-working business orientated self-starter with outstanding business and management skills in the medical field. A capable organiser, quick to grasp and make good use of new ideas and available technologies to make an impact on the market where inefficiency and non-consumption exist.

Objective

Currently pursuing the opportunity to reinvent the sleep medicine industry which has not seen meaningful innovation for decades. Sleep medicine, similar to space industry, relies heavily on agency's progression. Like SpaceX, we aim to bring in disruptive business model using highly cost-effective and patient-friendly diagnostic and treatment solutions. By focusing on one field in sleep medicine, Sleep Disordered Breathing, we believe we can have the most impact to the mankind,.
